

During the month of April, 10 QNB employees were among 12,786 bankers nationwide who participated in the American Bankers Association's (ABA) Teach Children to Save initiative. The QNB bankers presented lessons geared towards building a generation of financially educated consumers. 28 presentations were given to 781 2nd through 8th graders in QNB's Market area. The QNB bankers are not only in the classrooms during April – ongoing presentations are conducted throughout the school year.

QNB Bank offers commercial and retail banking services through its nine banking offices. In addition, QNB provides investment management and retail brokerage services through Raymond James Financial Services, Inc. and title insurance as a member of Laurel Abstract Company LLC.
