

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

QNB BANK HOSTS GRAND OPENING CEREMONY AT COLMAR BRANCH

Quakertown, PA (20 March 2013) QNB Bank (QNB) held a Grand Opening Ribbon Cutting Ceremony for its new Colmar Branch on March 13, 2013. QNB's tenth branch is located near the intersection of Route 309 and Walnut Street, just north of the Colmar train station and Wawa Market. Among those in attendance were representatives of Hatfield Township, Penn Suburban Chamber of Commerce, QNB's construction partners and members of the local business community.

Construction began back in September and was completed in a little over five months. David W. Freeman, President & CEO of QNB said, "We are pleased to be open for business at our new Colmar Branch. We trust that our current and future customers in the Colmar area will enjoy the convenience of our newest location." The new branch features a drive-up ATM, three drive-thru lanes, internet café, self-service coin counting machine and conference room. QNB's Colmar Grand Opening celebration continues through April 5th. Stop by the new branch to enter a weekly giveaway of an HDTV, and take advantage of special home equity loan rates.

QNB is a full-service community bank that has provided exceptional personalized banking services to individuals and small businesses since 1877. QNB's assets are approximately $920 million and the bank has ten branch locations serving portions of Bucks, Lehigh and Montgomery counties.

Photo caption left to right: SVP/Chief Information Technology Officer Jennifer Frost, Executive Vice President/Chief Lending Officer Scott Orzechowski, SVP/Chief Retail Officer Dale Wentz, Director Tom Bisko, VP Branch Manager II April Donahue, President and CEO Dave Freeman, Executive Vice President/Chief Financial Officer Brett Krevolin, Director Dennis Helf.

###

