

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

QNB BANK NAMES NEW MEMBERS TO
COMMUNITY ADVISORY GROUP

QUAKERTOWN, PA (6 April 2015) QNB recently added ten local businesspersons to their Community Advisory Group. The new members are: Tom Bachinsky, Northwood Construction Co., Inc.; Aaron Baum, Baum Precision Machining Inc.; Ed Knight, EventQuip; Kip Lynch, CMIT Solutions; Jeremy Melber, Southern Lehigh School District; Norman Mittman, Mittman & Liebman; S. Paul Sachdev, Orange Products, Inc.; Andrew Stanten, Altitude Marketing; Matthew Stevens, Stevens Funeral Home; and Rick Urie, Ambler Fireplace. These ten individuals will join an existing group of 55 other members in the community representing a broad spectrum of industries from retail to manufacturing.

The Community Advisory Group was formed by the Bank in 2004 for members of the community to meet with QNB Executives and Directors to discuss their views on the local economy and business activities. The Advisors also provide feedback on QNB's involvement in the community and the Bank provides the Advisors with updates on QNB and the banking industry in general.

###