QNB BANK PROMOTES CORY FOSBENNER TO VICE PRESIDENT/BRANCH MANAGER AT WESCOSVILLE OFFICE

QUAKERTOWN, PA (7 January 2016) QNB is pleased to announce the promotion of Cory Fosbenner to the position of Vice President/Branch Manager at the Bank's Wescosville Office. In his role, Mr. Fosbenner is responsible for increasing QNB's client satisfaction through excellent service, community involvement, and by helping clients succeed financially. His duties include developing team members to their maximum potential, overseeing the day-to-day operations of the Bank's northernmost branch, and ensuring an enjoyable client experience. His previous position was Assistant Vice President/Branch Manager at QNB's Quakertown Commons Office.

Mr. Fosbenner attended Millersville University and has been with QNB since 2013. Aside from his education at Millersville, Mr. Fosbenner also attended US Army Basic Training, US Army Airborne School, John F Kennedy Special Warfare School, and the 18th Airborne Corps Noncommissioned Officer Academy. As an active individual in the community, Mr. Fosbenner is an Upper Buck YMCA and Quakertown Alive committee member, an Upper Bucks Chamber of Commerce member, a National American Legion member, and a member of the 82nd Airborne Association. He currently resides in Quakertown with his wife and two sons and enjoys skiing, the outdoors, and travelling.
